DISTINGUISHED PSYCHOLOGIST IN LEADERSHIP AWARD

The Distinguished Psychologist in Leadership (DPIL) Award recognizes outstanding contributions to the practice of leadership by a psychologist. It was created to recognize individual accomplishments in fulfilling the purpose of the Society of Psychologists in Leadership (SPL), which is to facilitate the growth, development, and interaction of psychologists who work as leaders, or who otherwise contribute to the application of psychology to leadership and management.

The award is presented to an individual who has developed, refined, and implemented practices, procedures, and methods that have a major impact on people in organizational settings and/or on the professions of management. The recipient must be a psychologist and leader (or one who has made major contributions to psychology and leadership). Membership in the American Psychological Association or the American Psychological Society is highly desirable as evidence of commitment to the science and practice of psychology.

The award includes a $2,000 honorarium, $2,000 for travel expenses, and an invited address at SPL's Annual Conference, April 18-21, 2024 in Denver, Colorado.

Submit nominations by January 10, 2024 to admin@psychleaders.org with subject line: DPIL Award Nomination. The SPL Awards Committee will review all applications.

Nominations include:

1. This completed form, including signed consent (or an email from the nominee agreeing to be nominated).
2. Nominator letter that addresses the nominee's qualifications in the following categories: psychologist, member, or potential member of SPL; experience as leader or consultant to leaders; demonstration of mentoring or nurturing the growth of others; recognition and accolades for prior contributions (previous awards, offices in relevant organizations, etc.); dissemination of knowledge through publications and/or presentations; overall contributions to the field.
3. Current CV of the nominee
